But Cody was not one to give up easily. He knew that if he wanted something badly enough, he would find a way to make it happen. So he started saving his money, and every day he would go down to the tracks and watch the trains go by.

One day, Cody was watching the trains when he saw a conductor waving at him. Cody waved back, and the conductor smiled and blew his whistle.

Cody was so excited! He knew that this was his chance to finally ride on a train.

The conductor stopped the train and let Cody get on. Cody was so happy! He looked out the window and watched the world go by. He couldn't believe that he was finally riding on a train.

The train ride was everything that Cody had dreamed of and more. He saw mountains, rivers, and forests. He even saw a herd of buffalo! Cody was having the time of his life.

But all good things must come to an end, and soon it was time for Cody to get off the train. He thanked the conductor and waved goodbye as the train pulled away.

Cody walked home with a smile on his face. He had finally achieved his dream of riding on a train, and he knew that anything was possible if he set his mind to it.

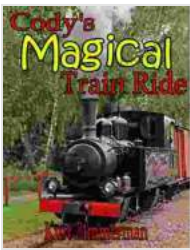

Cody's story is a reminder that we should never give up on our dreams. No matter how big or small, anything is possible if we have the determination to make it happen.
