Theories about the Sacrifice

There are a number of theories about why MH17 was sacrificed. One theory is that it was part of a plot by Russian President Vladimir Putin to destabilize Ukraine and bring it back under Russian control. Another theory is that it was a deliberate attack on the plane by the separatists, who were trying to send a message to the Ukrainian government.

There is also a theory that MH17 was sacrificed by the Malaysian government as part of a secret deal with the Russian government. According to this theory, the Malaysian government was paid a large sum of money to allow the plane to be shot down, in order to create a pretext for the Russian government to intervene in Ukraine.

The Investigation

The investigation into the downing of MH17 has been hampered by the ongoing conflict in eastern Ukraine. The Dutch Safety Board (DSB), which is responsible for the investigation, has been unable to access the crash site due to the fighting. As a result, the investigation has relied heavily on radar data and witness testimony.

The DSB's preliminary report, which was released in September 2014, concluded that MH17 was shot down by a surface-to-air missile. However, the report did not identify the type of missile or the party responsible for firing it.

In October 2015, the DSB released its final report, which concluded that MH17 was shot down by a Buk missile fired from separatist-controlled territory. The report also identified the specific unit responsible for firing the missile.

The Responsibility

The downing of MH17 was a tragedy that resulted in the deaths of innocent people. The investigation has concluded that the plane was shot down by a Russian-backed separatist missile, but the party responsible for firing the missile has not been identified.

The downing of MH17 has had a profound impact on the world. It has led to increased tensions between Russia and Ukraine, and it has raised questions about the safety of civilian air travel in conflict zones.

The Sacrifice

The downing of MH17 was a sacrifice of innocent lives. It was a tragedy that could have been avoided, but it was allowed to happen for political reasons.

The sacrifice of MH17 was not in vain. It has raised awareness of the dangers of conflict zones, and it has helped to galvanize international support for Ukraine.

We must never forget the victims of MH17. We must always remember their sacrifice, and we must always work to prevent such tragedies from happening again.
