In the desolate wasteland of a post-apocalyptic world, a lone wanderer emerges from the shadows, driven by an unquenchable thirst for vengeance. His name is Shovel Bomber, and his target is those responsible for the brutal murder of his father, a revered priest who dedicated his life to spreading love and compassion.

As Shovel Bomber embarks on his perilous quest, he encounters a cast of unforgettable characters, each with their own motivations and allegiances. There's Sister Mary, a former nun who has lost her faith and found solace in violence; Father Michael, a charismatic preacher who preaches love but harbors a dark secret; and General Zaroff, a ruthless warlord who sees Shovel Bomber as a threat to his power.

As Shovel Bomber's path of vengeance unfolds, he is forced to confront his own inner demons. The line between good and evil becomes increasingly blurred, and he must grapple with the consequences of his own actions. Along the way, he discovers that the truth is not always what it seems, and that even the most righteous of intentions can lead to unintended consequences.
