Curating a Visionary Compilation

The genesis of Project Ele Boxed Set Two lies in the vision of a collective of forward-thinking electronic music enthusiasts who sought to showcase the diversity and depth of the genre. They embarked on a meticulous curatorial process, scouring the globe for artists who were pushing the boundaries of electronic music and creating groundbreaking works of art.

The result is a collection of 12 tracks, each a masterpiece in its own right. From the ethereal soundscapes of Heathered Pearls to the pulsating rhythms of Truncate, Project Ele Boxed Set Two encompasses a wide spectrum of subgenres, including ambient, techno, house, and experimental electronica.

Exploring the Sonic Landscape

Embark on a musical odyssey as we explore the sonic landscapes of Project Ele Boxed Set Two.

Heathered Pearls – "Aqueous"

The set opens with "Aqueous," a mesmerizing ambient composition by Heathered Pearls. Layers of shimmering synths and ethereal textures create a tranquil atmosphere that washes over the listener like gentle waves.

Truncate – "Homogenous"

A stark contrast to the serenity of "Aqueous," Truncate's "Homogenous" is a pulsating techno anthem. Driving beats, distorted basslines, and hypnotic melodies converge to create an electrifying dancefloor experience.

Evan Baggs – "Triangle"

Evan Baggs' "Triangle" showcases the intricate and experimental side of electronic music. A symphony of clicks, glitches, and unexpected rhythms unfolds, challenging conventional musical structures.

Semantica – "Infared"

Semantica's "Infared" is a deep and atmospheric house track that oozes sophistication. Its hypnotic bassline and soaring synths will transport you to a realm of pure musical bliss.

Hypnolove – "All I Want" (Fede Lorusso Remix)

Fede Lorusso's remix of Hypnolove's "All I Want" is a poignant and introspective exploration of love and longing. Its dreamy synths and ethereal vocals create a sense of longing and melancholy.

Terrence Dixon – "Mirrors"

House music legend Terrence Dixon delivers a masterclass in minimalism with "Mirrors." Its sparse rhythms, hypnotic melodies, and soulful vocals create a track that is both timeless and deeply moving.

Nene H – "Overflow"

Nene H's "Overflow" is a futuristic and experimental journey that defies categorization. Its intricate sound design and distorted textures create a soundscape that is both unsettling and captivating.

Biome – "Epilogue"

The set concludes with "Epilogue" by Biome, a haunting and atmospheric ambient piece. Its shimmering synths and ghostly melodies leave the listener suspended in a state of introspection and wonder.

An Immersive Listening Experience

Project Ele Boxed Set Two is not simply a collection of tracks; it is a curated journey designed to immerse the listener in a sonic world that transcends the ordinary. The double-LP format allows for an extended listening experience, providing ample time to delve into the depths of each track and fully appreciate its nuances.

The vinyl format also enhances the listening experience, offering a warm and organic sound that is unmatched by digital formats. The crackle and pop of the needle on the record evoke a sense of nostalgia and authenticity, creating a truly immersive and intimate listening experience.

The Significance of Project Ele

Project Ele is more than just a record label; it is a collective of artists, musicians, and enthusiasts who are dedicated to pushing the boundaries of electronic music. Through their carefully curated releases and events, Project Ele provides a platform for innovative and forward-thinking artists to showcase their work to the world.
